

The Pop-Up Nativity

The Pop-Up Nativity

Introduction

Based on Christmas story booklet, The Well Good News Of Christmas, this Nativity resource has been produced for churches wanting to put on an easy, fun and interactive Nativity-themed service this Christmas.

We know how difficult it can be to run a good Nativity service, without hours and hours of preparation and effort. That's why we've put together this resource; so you can forget about costume-making, script-writing and line-learning, and put on an interactive Nativity service that all ages will enjoy.

The story of the birth of Jesus is one of the most well-known stories in the Bible. This fresh retelling brings the story to life for all ages, and explains just why the birth of Jesus is 'well good' news for everyone!

How to use this guide

In this guide you will find a narrator's script for retelling the Nativity story. All you need is one narrator to tell the story, although you could split up the sections between different readers.

The script is written in the format of a suggested service outline. We recognise that as well as telling the Nativity story, you will probably want to add other elements to your Christmas service, such as carols and prayers. We've made some suggestions, but they are all optional and can be mixed and matched around the Nativity retelling.

Throughout the script, there are various opportunities for making the Nativity interactive. These are all highlighted and explained. They are completely optional, but we would suggest you make the most of them so that everyone has the opportunity to engage (and have lots of fun!)

Additional resources

We have produced several other resources that you may find useful for your Christmas service(s):

Visuals

To accompany your Pop-Up Nativity, we have produced a PowerPoint presentation with images for you to use alongside the Nativity retelling. With hand-illustrated images from the The Well Good News Of Christmas story booklet, these backgrounds will add an extra visual dimension to your service as well as providing words for everyone to read together. If you have projection facilities, we suggest using this presentation. The PowerPoint file is available for download at:

www.wellgoodchristmas.nz

Counting down

Before your service, there are just a few things that are worth doing to make sure you're ready and the Nativity will be the best it can be:

Advertise

It's great fun if children come to the Nativity dressed up as one of the characters from the story. There's an opportunity in the script for those who are dressed up to parade with their costumes. Make sure you advertise this widely, so families know to come dressed up – and will be prepared for shepherds and wise men to be walking through your church doors!

Plan who does what

You will need a Narrator; somebody who is a confident, clear reader and can bring out expression in the story. Make sure they read through the script beforehand so they're aware of where everything goes and how the flow of the service will run.

You'll also need to decide whether you want to split up the sections between different readers. There are some refrains throughout the script for everybody to join in with. The words are on the accompanying PowerPoint presentation for you to show on a screen. But if you don't have a screen, the narrator could just read them.

Be interactive

There are a few different opportunities in the script for making the Nativity interactive, and some of these will need explaining before you get into the story. Make sure you decide which bits you'll include and let the congregation know at the beginning of the service what they'll need to do.

Have some extra props prepared

You could provide some tinsel halos for angels and some paper crowns for kings, plus tea towels (and cord to keep them on people's heads) for shepherds. This means that everyone can take part, even if they forgot or didn't know about coming in costume.

The Pop-Up Nativity

Slide 1 Welcome – Narrator/Service leader

Welcome everybody to the service and explain that today you will be retelling the Christmas story, and that there will be a chance for everybody to be involved.

Opening prayer

Dear God

Thank you for the fun and excitement of Christmas, and the chance to retell the wonderful story of Jesus' birth. We pray that you would be with us today and open our eyes in new ways to the Nativity story.
Amen

Suggested carol – O come all ye faithful

Slide 2 Introduction

Explain that today you will be telling the Nativity story based on the of The Well Good News of Christmas, but you can't do it alone and will need help from everybody else.

Every time you say the following words, you need the congregation to join in by doing these actions and sounds:

Well good: Thumbs up

Shepherds: Hands out and bent forward, say 'Baa'

Wise men: Stroke chin wisely and say 'hmmm'

Mary: Hands up and shout 'Mummy'

Joseph: Hands up and shout 'Daddy'

Angel: Wave hands above head and sing a holy 'ahhh'

Have a practise by saying each word one or two times so everybody has got it. You may want somebody to help you lead the actions from the front. When the words come up in your script, they will be highlighted so you will know to give a little pause (and maybe some encouragement) for the congregation to join with the action.

Also let everybody know that anybody who has dressed up as one of the characters in the Nativity story will get a chance to join in and show off their outfits later in the service, and you'll explain how to do that.

Finally, explain that there will be some words within the story for everybody to join in with and read together. These will be shown on the screen.

Now ask everybody to settle down, and you're ready to begin telling the story.

Slide 3 Creation

Narrator: Our story starts a really, really long time ago. It was a time before Toys
Trees
Birds
And animals (even before those big animals with the floppy ears and really big trunks).

Our story starts before humans like you and me...

Before shepherds

Before wise men

Our story begins so long ago, it was even before [insert name of somebody who will make the audience laugh e.g. somebody famous, church leader's name].

A time before everything

God made the world.

And it was well good!

Slide 4

But...the humans he made, like you and like me,
Became nasty and mean, quite unfortunately.
In fact the humans didn't listen to God.
They'd hurt each other and wouldn't make amends
So God and humans could no longer be friends.

But to be friends again, God had a plan.

And his plan was to send a very special young man.

Slide 5 The angel appears to Mary

Narrator: Many years later, there was a young lady called Mary.

This one day, or maybe even night

an angel appeared suddenly and gave Mary quite a fright.

The angel said:

Everybody: I bring good news
It's well good – honest!
There'll be a baby born
Just as God promised

Slide 6

Narrator: So Mary was going to have a baby, just as God promised. And the baby would be called, Jesus.

Suggested carol – Once in Royal David's City

Invite the angels to parade around the church during the carol.

Slide 7 Joseph

Narrator: There was a man called Joseph and he was going to marry Mary.
But Joseph noticed, she had a bit of a belly.

He saw her big belly bump, and wondered how'd it got there.
And so he scratched his head and twizzled his hair.

Slide 8 But one night, when Joseph was sleeping, an angel came to visit.
The angel said
The baby was there by God's spirit.

Slide 9 Everybody: "I bring good news
It's well good – honest!
There'll be a baby born
Just as God promised."

Slide 10 Narrator: So Mary and Joseph – both of them!
Set off together on a journey, all the way to Bethlehem.

Suggested carol – O Little Town of Bethlehem

Invite the Marys and Josephs to parade around the church during the carol.

No room at the inn

Narrator: When they arrived in Bethlehem
Mary was ready to give birth to the baby who'll be King
But guess what? There was no room for them at the inn!

Slide 11 Everybody: "Don't be afraid
Don't get uptight
Relax, take a breather
You'll be all right!"

Slide 12 Narrator: So they managed to find somewhere to stay, in a stable,
In a place full of hay.

They stayed in the shed where animals get fed.
And it was there that baby Jesus was born, with straw for a bed.

Slide 13

Now, in a field nearby, there were some shepherds.
They were just minding their own business,
Maybe cleaning their shoes
Maybe trying to scrape off the smelly sheep poos!
[React to a bad smell]
But all of a sudden, something really weird happened.
Out of nowhere, an angel appeared!

Slide 14

Everybody: Don't be afraid
That's what I say!
Say hi to the baby
In a manger full of hay.

Slide 15

Narrator: Then as the angel said that, something even weirder happened!
Suddenly, loads of angels appeared! (And I mean LOADS!)

Slide 16

Everybody: We bring good news,
It's well good – honest!
There'll be a baby born
Just as God promised

Slide 17

Narrator: So the shepherds, having listened to what the angels said, hurried off to Bethlehem to find the baby Jesus. And they found him there, lying in a manger of straw in a stable.

Suggested carol – See him lying on a bed of straw
Invite the shepherds to parade around the church during the carol.

Slide 18

Wise men

Narrator: There were also some wise blokes in the story. They had been travelling a very long way. But they didn't use Google maps
– they followed a star!

They went to the King, King Herod, and asked where Jesus was as they had seen his star.
So King Herod sent the wise men to Bethlehem, which wasn't all that far.

Slide 19

Then the wise blokes found Jesus
Next to animals with fur
And they brought him some Gold
Frankincense and Myrrh.

And the wise blokes bowed down and worshipped him.

Suggested carol – We three kings

Invite the Wise Men to parade around the church during the carol.

Slide 20 Escaping from Herod

Narrator: The wise men remembered that King Herod wanted them to report back to him.
But Herod wasn't very nice, and so they were warned in a dream not to go back to him!

Slide 21 Everybody: "Don't be afraid
Hear what I say!
Just don't visit Herod
Go home another way."

Slide 22 Narrator: Herod searched high
And Herod searched low, but where was Jesus? He just didn't know.

Slide 23 An angel appeared to Mary and Joseph to warn them to hide from Herod in a different country.

Slide 24 Everybody: Don't be afraid
Don't get uptight
Relax, take a breather
You'll be alright!

Narrator: So they escaped to a different country, until Herod was gone.
And then they were no longer afraid.
They travelled back home, and that's where they stayed.

Slide 25 Jesus fulfils God's promise

Narrator: So Jesus grew up, from a baby, to a boy, to a man.
Jesus grew up to be a carpenter man.
And he did lots of cool stuff

Slide 26 He healed the sick, he told great stories.
Was amazing all the time
He also walked on water and even turned water into wine!

Slide 27 And do you remember that time, long, long ago, when humans like me and you were mean and not very nice?
When we were nasty to each other and we wouldn't make amends?
And when God and humans could no longer be friends?

But then God had a plan to make us friends again?
Well Jesus the baby and Jesus the man;
Was the exact same Jesus and God's rescue plan.

Jesus lived, then he died, for you and for me,
He did it to make our wrong, history.
To take the blame for all the mean things we've ever done.
But something amazing happened, because he's the most powerful one.

He came back to life! And it's worth a big high five
Because the well good news is Jesus came alive!

Slide 28 Everybody: So don't get scared, or jumpy
And don't be afraid
"I will be with you" – says Jesus
'Not for a bit, but always.'

Slide 29 Narrator: And that's why Christmas is the well good news, honest!
When Jesus came, just as God promised.

Slide 30 The end.

Extra bits – Narrator/Service leader

At this point there are several options for what you might do next. The Nativity story has ended, and you may choose to not do anything else and just end your service. Or you might do any or all of these other options:

- A short talk/sermon on the meaning of Christmas
- Say some prayers

Suggested carol – Come and join the celebration

Conclusion – Narrator/Service leader

You have come to the end of the service now. You may want to thank everybody for coming and say this final prayer:

Closing prayer

Dear God

Thank you that Christmas is 'well good' news. Thank you that you sent your son to show your love for us, so that we could be friends with you.

We pray that you will be with people in need this Christmas. We pray that you'd comfort everybody, and help everyone to know your love and enjoy this Christmas.

Thank you that we are able to celebrate Christmas with presents and fun.

Amen.

End

Thank you for taking part in the Pop-Up Nativity, we hope you enjoyed your service.
